DISCLOSING INFORMATION USING SECTION 66A OR 66C OF THE ORANGA TAMARIKI ACT 1989

Seek support or advice from supervisor or manager, or from legal services as appropriate,

about disclosing under other provisions if necessary.

Record details and alert

requester of decision.

-NO>

Are you planning to disclose information for one or more of the following purposes listed in section 66A or 66C of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989?

- preventing or reducing risk of te tamaiti or rangatahi being subjected to harm, illtreatment, abuse, neglect or deprivation
- making or contributing to an assessment of risk or need
- making, contributing to or monitoring support plans in relation to plans and activities of Oranga Tamariki
- preparing, implementing or reviewing prevention plans or strategies issued by Oranga Tamariki
- arranging, providing or reviewing services facilitated by Oranga Tamariki for te tamaiti, rangatahi or their whānau or family
- carrying out any functions in relation to a family group conference, tamariki or rangatahi in care or any other functions relating to care and protections under Part 2 of the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989.

YES Is the information you are planning to disclose relevant to the safety or oranga (wellbeing) of the child (even if it isn't about -NO them)? YES -Is the individual or agency you want to disclose information to -NO part of the sector or an independent person as defined in the Oranga Tamariki Act 1989? YES How did you originally receive the information that you are considering disclosing? OTHER SECTION 66 SECTION 66C e.g. through case work conversation Is provider of the information covered by a professional duty of confidence? e.g. doctor, psychologist, lawyer Covered Not Covered Use section 66C provisions to disclose information. Did provider have the consent of the person the information is about to share? YES

